

- As Close to Us As Breathing by Elizabeth Poliner -A trio of sisters experience joy and pain as they vacation together.
- At The Water's Edge by Sara Gruen – A group of rich Americans travel to Scotland in search of the Loch Ness monster.
- Before the Fall by Noah Hawley – A plan crashes and only two survive-was it an accident or something more sinister?
- Beyond the Ice Limit – by Douglas Preston & Lincoln Child - A scientist sets out to destroy a dangerous meteorite.
- The Bitter Season by Tami Hoag - Former Minneapolis police force partners face their first cases after reassignment.
- The Black Widow by Daniel Silva -Art restorer and spy Allon is on the trail of an ISIS terrorist after a bombing in Paris.
- The Book of Unknown Americans by Christina Henriquez- A Mexican family moves to the U.S. after an accident.
- The Book Thief by Marcus Zusak - With Death as narrator this novel follows a young girl in Nazi Germany.
- Britt-Marie Was Here by Fredrik Backman-A fussy woman leaves her husband and finds her life turned upside-down.
- Broken for You by Stephanie Kallos - The lives of two women in self-imposed exile are transformed when they meet.
- The Discreet Hero by Mario Vargas Llosa - An insurance company owner crosses paths with a blackmail victim in Peru.
- A Drop in the Ocean by Jenni Ogden - After a career setback, a woman flees to an island on the Great Barrier Reef.
- Circling The Sun by Paula McLain - A fictional account of the life of aviator Beryl Markham set in Kenya in the 1920's.
- City of The Lost by Kelley Armstrong - A detective is faced with a murder in a town off the grid in the wilds of Canada.
- The Curious Charms of Arthur Pepper by Phaedra Patric - An English widower goes on a trip to discover his wife's past.
- The Dinner Party by Brenda Janowitz – A upcoming marriage brings two different families together at a Passover Seder.
- Etched in Sand by Regina Calcaterra - A lawyer recounts her childhood in foster homes and on the streets.
- Everyone Brave is Forgiven by Chris Cleave- Four young Londoners fight their own personal battles as WW II rages.
- Everything I Never Told You by Celeste Ng - A tight-knit Chinese-American family unravels after a daughter is murdered.
- The Expatriates by Janice Lee - Three American women living in Hong Kong experience love, loss and uncertain futures.
- The Forgotten Garden by Kate Morton – Abandoned as a child, Nell attempts to discover the truth about her origins.
- The Garden of Letters by Alyson Richman – A musician involved in the resistance in Italy is taken in by a grieving doctor.
- The Good Husband of Zebra Drive by Alexander McCall Smith- A Botswana sleuth's husband helps with an investigation.
- Homegoing by Yaa Gyasi - Two half-sisters, unknown to each other live very different lives in 18th century Ghana.
- The Ice Cream Queen of Orchard Street by Susan Gilman – A Russian Jewish woman is taken in by an Italian family.
- I'm Traveling Alone by Samuel Bjørk - Two Norwegian detectives reunite to hunt down a vengeful child killer.
- The Last Mile by David Baldacci - A former football player with perfect memory joins a special FBI cold case unit.
- Leaving Time by Jodi Picoult – A teen searches for her mother with the help of a psychic and an ex-cop.
- Lilac Girls by Martha Hall Kelly – A novel based on the women prisoners in the Ravensbruck concentration camp.
- Little Mercies by Heather Gudenkauf – A social worker's tragic mistake with her own child leads to an investigation.

The Little Paris Bookshop by Nina George – A new neighbor and an unopened letter sends a bookseller on a journey.

Magic by Danielle Steel- Three interconnected couples' lives change when they attend a yearly dinner in Paris.

The Marriage of Opposites by Alice Hoffman- A novel inspired by the life of Impressionist Camille Pissarro's mother.

Miller's Valley by Anna Quindlen – A woman faces upheavals in her personal life and a threat to her family's farmland.

The Mistletoe Inn by Richard Paul Evans – A divorced woman and her neighbor pretend to be a couple at Christmas.

Most Wanted - Lisa Scottoline – A woman suspects the sperm donor she used to conceive is a serial killer.

The Muralist by B.A. Shapiro - A WPA muralist mysteriously disappears while trying to obtain visas for her Jewish family.

A Murder in Time by Julie McElwain - A tough female FBI agent finds herself chasing a killer in the 19th century England.

A Murder of Crows by Terrence McCauley – A superspy attempts to track down and stop a bioterrorist.

Night by Elie Wiesel – A account of a Nazi death camp where a young Jewish boy witnesses the death of his family.

The Nightingale by Kristin Hannah - Two French sisters show remarkable courage in the German occupation during WWII.

Nowhere Girl by Susan Strecker- A thriller writer investigates the murder of her identical twin who was killed at sixteen.

Our Souls at Night by Kent Haruf- A widow invites her widower neighbor to sleep over so neither has to be lonely.

The Paris Architect by Charles Belfoure - In Nazi occupied Paris, an architect is hired to devise hiding spaces for Jews.

The Pecan Man by Cassie Dandridge Selleck - A widow and her maid spin a web of lies that sends a man to prison.

The Pursuit by Janet Evanovich – When a con man secretly working for the FBI is kidnapped his partner tries to find him.

The Railwayman's Wife by Ashley Hay- A widow, a poet, and a doctor search for peace after World War II.

Relativity by Antonia Hayes - A gifted boy tries to discover the truth about his past despite his overprotective mother.

The Rent Collector by Camron Wright- A Cambodian mother is desperate to secure a better life for her ailing son.

Salt to the Sea by Ruta Sepetys - Four teens escaping their past set sail on a doomed ship during WW II.

Saving Sophie by Ronald Balson - The retrieval of a kidnapped girl is complicated by a terrorism plot against Israel.

Secret Daughter by Shilpi Somaya Gowda - Two families, one Indian and one American, are connected by a child.

The Secret Life of Bees by Sue Monk Kidd - Escaping racists, a white girl flees with her black surrogate mother.

The Sisters by David Grafton - Account of the three sisters from Boston who made marrying well into a social art form.

The Sisters Weiss by Naomi Ragen – A girl from an ultra-Orthodox family sets off to find her estranged aunt.

Tears of Dark Water by Corban Addison - Somali pirates hijack a sailboat taking an American father and son hostage.

To Kill a Mockingbird by Harper Lee – A young girl's father defends a black man accused of raping a white woman.

The Tommyknockers by Stephen King – An artifact found in a forest changes a small town and the people in it.

The Translation of Love by Lynne Kutsukake- Returning to Japan after WWII, a girl searches for her friend's sister.

Tumbledown Manor by Helen Brown- A novelist starts a new life as she renovates her family's run down country manor.

The Two Family House Lynda Cohen Loigman – Two women who give birth minutes apart are torn apart by a secret.