|-----------------------|---|
| Barry, Brunonia       | The Lace Reader - When her great-aunt disappears, a woman returns home to Salem 15 years after fleeing to California under troubling circumstances.              |
| Cameron, Michelle     | The Fruit of Her Hands - Traces the life of a Jewish woman, who was educated like a son by her father, amid the rising anti-Semitism in 13th century Europe.     |
| Cleave, Chris         | Little Bee - Presents the tale of an illegal Nigerian refugee and a recent widow from suburban London and the tragedy that brought them together.                |
| Cross, Donna Woolfolk | Pope Joan - Born in 814, Joan dons her dead brother's clothes, assumes a man's identity, and gains respect and authority as well as the title of pope.           |
| Donoghue, Emma        | Room - To 5 year-old Jack Room is the entire world. It is where he was born and grew up; but to his mother it is her prison of 7 years.                          |
| Glass, Julia          | The Widower's Tale - A cantankerous widower's life changes when he allows a progressive pre-school to open in his barn.  |
| Larsson, Stieg        | The Girl with the Dragon Tattoo - Set in Sweden, a journalist and a Goth hacker team up to investigate a 40 year old disappearance.                              |
| Lavigne, Michael      | Not Me - Tells the dramatic and surprising stories of two men, father and son, through sixty years of uncertain memory, distorted history, and assumed identity. |
| Maynard, Joyce        | The Good Daughter - The fortunes of two families are entwined through their youngest daughters, who were born on the same day in the same hospital.              |
| Orringer, Julie       | The Invisible Bridge - An epic tale of three Jewish brothers from Hungary whose lives are torn apart by World War II.  |

Patchett, Ann

Run - A traffic accident and an act of bravery bring two very different families together and changes their lives.

Verghese, Abraham

Cutting for Stone - Twin brothers who share a love of medicine come of age in an Ethiopia on the brink of revolution, until they are driven apart by betrayal.

Walls, Jeanette

Half Broke Horses – A novel based on the life of the author's grandmother, who learned to break horses in childhood and went on to run a vast ranch in Arizona.

Non- Fiction

Eggers, Dave

Zeitoun - Chronicles the tribulations of Syrian-born Zeitoun who is inexplicably arrested by the military while aiding in Hurricane Katrina rescue efforts.
