October 14, 2010 Meeting

Fiction

- Benson, Sally      Meet Me in St. Louis – Tells the story of the Smith family on the eve of the 1904 St. Louis World's Fair. The popular Judy Garland movie was based on this novel.
- Flaubert, Gustave      Madame Bovary – The tale of a doctor's wife who, bored and unfulfilled by marriage and motherhood, embarks upon a series of affairs in search of passion.
- Larsson, Stieg      The Girl with the Dragon Tattoo - Set in Sweden, a journalist and a Goth hacker team up to investigate a 40 year old disappearance.
- Lavigne, Michael      Not Me – Tells the dramatic and surprising stories of two men, father and son, through sixty years of uncertain memory, distorted history, and assumed identity.
- McCann, Colum      Let the Great World Spin - Follows a menagerie of New Yorkers through a day in 1974, the day of the daring tightrope walk between the Twin Towers.
- Roth, Philip      Indignation - During the Korean War, a young man leaves New Jersey for college in Ohio, trying to escape from his father's fear and apprehension.
- Shoneyin, Lola      The Secret Lives of Baba Segi's Wives - Set in contemporary Nigeria, this novel draws one into the complex family dynamics of a polygamous marriage.

Non- Fiction

- Bernstein, Harry      The Invisible Wall – The author tells of his life in an English Mill town where Jewish and Christian families lived on the same street but were worlds apart.
- Eggers, Dave      Zeitoun - Chronicles the tribulations of Syrian-born Zeitoun who, while aiding in Hurricane Katrina rescue efforts, was inexplicably arrested by the military.
- James, Tommy & Fitzpatrick, Martin      Me, the Mob, and the Music – Tommy James tells how mafia operators made money from rock-and-roll's turbulent adolescence.

- LuPone, Patti                    Patti LuPone - One of the theatre's most beloved leading ladies lays it all bare, sharing the intimate story of her life both onstage and off.
- Russert, Tim                    Big Russ and Me – This is Russert's memoir and a tribute to his father and the lessons he taught through the years.
- Stahl, Leslie                    Reporting Live - In her decades at CBS News, Stahl has seen it all and now she shares her experiences in this behind-the-microphone look at news reporting.
- Weller, Sheila                    Girls Like Us - Examines the lives and times of three of the most important female musicians of the sixties: Carole King, Joni Mitchell and Carly Simon.
- Wilkerson, Isabel                    The Warmth of Other Suns - Chronicles the decades-long migration of black citizens who fled the South in search of a better life.
