The Almost Sisters by Joshilyn Jackson

Tuesday, November 14
at 7:30 p.m.

After a one night stand with Batman results in an unexpected pregnancy and a family scandal calls her back to Alabama, Leia, a 38 year old graphic novel writer/artist, is forced to look at her life and everything she holds dear in a different light. And what is the secret her grandmother is keeping? Pregnancy seems to be the least of her problems! This is a beautifully written, poignant yet humorous story with characters that will stay with you after you finish the book.
